

Crossroads College Preparatory School

Position: Secondary Music Teacher/Music Director

Crossroads College Preparatory School has an immediate opening for a part-time Music Teacher. Crossroads seeks an individual with experience teaching music courses such as Introduction to Music, Contemporary Ensemble, and Computer Music. The ideal candidate is highly knowledgeable in the areas of performance, conducting, music history, music theory, and music pedagogy, is passionate about teaching a diverse and talented range of adolescents, and committed to the mission and work of Crossroads.

Our Mission

Crossroads College Preparatory School strives to be an exemplary and engaging learning community committed to justice and equity.

About Crossroads

Crossroads College Preparatory School is an independent secondary school in the City of St. Louis currently serving 175 students in 7th-12th grades. Our students are diverse, arrive to us from 43 zip codes in the region, and just over half benefit from our robust scholarship program.

Please learn more about us at <http://crossroadscollegeprep.org/> or on Facebook.

Qualifications

- Demonstrated expertise in music performance, music technology, music history, music theory, and music pedagogy (evidenced by degree or extensive training, secondary teaching experience, and/or performance experience)
- Bachelor's degree required, Master's degree in music or music education or a related field preferred
- Secondary teaching experience required, independent school experience preferred

Ideal teacher candidates possess:

- Demonstrated ability and passion to work with diverse students, including those with varied learning styles and those with a wide range of interest and experience as musicians
- Knowledge of a wide range of traditional and digital instruments and recording technology.
- Demonstrated ability to utilize varied teaching methods to accommodate student learning
- Demonstrated experience with long- and short-term planning to develop a music program that is relevant to our students
- Demonstrated experience partnering effectively with parents, faculty members, and other influencers
- Commitment to anti-bias/anti-racism work and to an inclusive, just, and equitable school community.
- Ability to build effective partnerships with constituents through responsive communication
- Ability to be relationship-oriented while maintaining expectations and boundaries

- Willingness to contribute to the organization and leadership of the school through committee or special project participation
- Strategic thinking skills with a “can-do” attitude

Compensation and Benefits

- Salary commensurate with education and experience
- Excellent health benefits
- 6% salary match to TIAA retirement account
- Supportive and compelling environment and mission

Application Process

Applicants who meet these requirements should send a cover letter and resume by email with Music Teacher in the subject line to Dr. Jason Heisserer, Head of School, at hiring@crossroadscollegeprep.org.